

Student's code

A923

Listening:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
a -	b +	b +	c +	a -	a +	c -	b -	c +	c -

5

Reading:

1.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
b +	a +	a +	b +	a +	b +	b +	a +

2.

8

Use of English:

1.		2.
1 b +	12 c -	23 —	-
2 d +	13 d +	24 arguments	+
3 c +	14 d -	25 editor	-
4 c -	15 a -	26 discussions	+
5 a -	16 b -	27 proposal	+
6 a -	17 c -	28 evolution	+
7 b -	18 a -	29 political	+
8 d -	19 a -	30 popularity	+
9 d -	20 c -
10 b -	21 b -
11 a -	22 d +

10

WRITING

The phrase ^{Point} "ask not what your country ~~did~~ did for you, but ask ^{hw} what you did for your country" emphasizes the importance of active civic engagement and responsibility. It encourages individuals to focus not on what they can receive from the government, but on how they can contribute to its development. This can involve participating in volunteer projects, supporting local ⁶⁰ initiatives, or simply caring for one's community. Such an approach fosters a sense of unity and patriotism, inspiring people to act for the greater good. Ultimately, it reminds us that a strong nation is built on the efforts and sacrifices of its citizens, highlighting the value of collective responsibility.

20

110

445.

SPEAKING